ABOUT

BLOOMING BATH

Our story began with a simple question: why does my baby's bath time feel like a chore when it's supposed to be a precious bonding experience? Founded in 2011 by four frustrated dads, Blooming Bath was born from a desire to make bath time easy, comfortable, and fun for both babies and parents. Drawing inspiration from the gentle touch of a petal and the warmth of a hug, our innovative collection of plush products takes the stress out of bath time, allowing families to soak up those precious memories.
